Mastering Mixed Assessment

Date: Monday 05 February 2018

Time: 1.00pm - 2.00pm

Speakers

Alison Cooper FCII Dip PFS, ACT One Training Services

Lynne Broadhead ACII, Lynne Broadhead Consulting

In this IIL lecture Alison Cooper & Lynne Broadhead shared their considerable knowledge and experience, to provide guidance to candidates to help master the CII Diploma units, with a focus on MCQ & coursework. These insights have been gained primarily from their experiences as CII Senior Examiners, Moderators & Markers. Alison and Lynne explained that with the change in CII focus from exams to Mixed Assessment, a new approach & skill set was required by CII candidates. Mixed Assessment required candidates to demonstrate their theoretical knowledge in the multiple-choice exam & their practical knowledge/experience in the coursework component. Their revision presentation highlighted a structured route to CII students studies including: • How to master the syllabus & focus on learning objectives; • How to prepare for the MCQ exam; • How to deconstruct coursework questions; • How to plan your written answers to maximise marks.

By attending this event, delegates will be able to identify:

- Focusing on the syllabus & learning outcomes;
- Understanding how to deconstruct coursework questions;
- Planning your assignment answers.
