Less is more for strong market oversight at Lloyd's

Date: Wednesday 7 February 2018

Time: 1.15pm - 2.00pm

Speaker: Jon Hancock, Director, Performance Management, Lloyd's

In this IIL lecture Jon defined performance management and oversight in the Lloyd's context, and set out what good looks like and showed how a light but strong touch prudential regulatory regimes at national and international levels are essential if the true value of insurance is to be realised. Good market oversight should: - Provide a secure capital environment for investors - Deliver consistent performance - Enhance the Lloyd's brand.

By the end of this lecture members would have gained an insight into:

- Performance management at Lloyd's
- What makes for effective performance management/market oversight
- The value of prudential, robust and fair national and international regulatory regimes
