

Continuing Professional Development Certificate

Crime and cyber enabled crime

Date: Tuesday 28 November 2017

Time: 1.15pm - 2.00pm

Speaker:

Ian Dyson, Commissioner, City of London Police

In this ILL lecture Commissioner Ian Dyson, the Head of the National Lead Police Force for Fraud and Cyber enabled crime, talked about the growing and changing threats of cybercrime, what it means to businesses and individuals and how we can better protect ourselves against the threats. Ian explained that the City of London Police has a national responsibility to tackle fraud and cyber enabled fraud in the UK.

In his presentation, Ian outlined the work that the police force does; firstly, in law enforcement and in partnership with other stakeholders and secondly, to discuss steps that businesses and individuals can take to prove their own resilience to cyber crime.

By the end of this lecture, members would have gained an insight into:

- Major cyber-crime threats facing UK
- Why businesses and individuals are vulnerable to cyber crime
- How businesses and individuals can help protect themselves

This lecture or podcast can be included as part of your CPD requirement should you consider it relevant to your professional development needs. It is recommended that you keep any evidence of the CPD activity you have completed and upload copies to the recording tool as the CII may ask to see this if your record is selected for review.