Harry has over 35 years' experience as a Loss Adjuster, having previously qualified as a Chartered Accountant.

In recent years Harry has been regularly consulted by insurers, brokers and lawyers on the application of BI wordings to complex circumstances or situations. He has acted as an expert witness, as well as having claims referred to him for expert determination. It is in these areas of consultancy and claim resolution that Harry now specialises.

Harry is a past President of CILA, having first been invited to join Council after pioneering the profession's response to Regulation. As President he introduced the concept of Specialist Interest Groups which have become the mainstay for much of CILA's recent activity.

Harry is the current editor of 'Riley on Business Interruption Insurance'. The 10th Edition was published in 2016. 'Riley' remains the leading textbook on Business Interruption and is regularly quoted in legal cases around the world.
