

THOMAS ROCHE

Secretary
Business Sprinkler Alliance

Thomas Roche is the Secretary of the Business Sprinkler Alliance (BSA). Tom is a Senior Consultant within FM Global and works to share knowledge and expertise to influence building codes and loss prevention standards.

For over 25 years Tom has served in a variety of engineering and engineering management roles across the UK. He has travelled extensively to support clients across the world to establish loss prevention policies and implement risk strategies all aimed at improving the resilience of their businesses to property risks. This has ranged from large projects for new facilities to adapting existing facilities and processes.
