“The CII is here to build public trust”

“The reputation of London as a global centre of excellence in insurance and financial services relies on the talent and expertise of those operating in it.”

Sian Fisher ACII,
CEO, The Chartered Insurance Institute

“The world is clearly facing new challenges and new emerging risks. London’s ecosystem is unrivalled and we must continue evolving our workforce to reflect our diverse client base. CII qualifications play an important role in ensuring our workforce has the right skills to face the future with confidence, so that we can enable our clients to do likewise.”

Anthony Baldwin
President, The Insurance Institute of London

Where did this scheme come from?

For the public and global corporates alike, trust is vital. We need to earn that trust by getting professionally qualified, committing to continuing personal development and working to high ethical standards. The IIL initially established a three-year Qualification Mentoring Pilot Scheme in 2016 to support students who can't otherwise access an employer mentoring scheme or who may require additional support. Following the success of the pilot years the continuation of the scheme has now been approved by the IIL Council. It is one of the IIL's contributions to the London Market Group's Talent and Diversity drive to help ensure that the London Market has a well-qualified workforce and London retains its global reputation as the centre of excellence in insurance.

The scheme takes a peer-led, team-based approach to encourage and support members in achieving the Advanced Diploma in Insurance (ACII) or the Advanced Diploma in Financial Planning (APFS) – over the course of three years, from any starting point, to reach their full potential.

How does the scheme work?

This scheme is now open for applications to join the 2021 intake.

- There are 40 Mentee and 12 Buddy Mentor places available (eight Mentee and two Buddy Mentor places are for financial planners).
- We promote a 'team' structure – five teams with two Buddy Mentors and eight Mentees per team. Wider communication across teams is also highly encouraged, to share knowledge and experiences.
- The scheme includes a number of educational, motivational and networking events per year, to promote networking within the profession and to develop other critical professional skills (see page 6).
- Mentees are expected to participate in three compulsory events in the first year; other events are optional and will depend on study progress.

Acknowledgements

The Insurance Institute of London thanks all those individuals and firms who freely give time, expertise and resources to enable us to deliver this Scheme free of charge. These partners are committed, and applicants must also demonstrate their commitment to achieving the Advanced Diploma in Insurance (ACII) or Advanced Diploma in Financial Planning (APFS) within three years, with the support of this scheme.

Why join this qualification mentoring scheme?

Studying can be a lonely experience. It can be daunting to study on top of a busy job and active social life. Some find the array of subjects confusing when it comes to deciding the order in which to take them, others have previously found the step up from Certificate to Diploma level bigger than they were expecting and members can also struggle due to a lack of employer support. This scheme aims to provide motivation, via a peer group led by a Buddy Mentor – someone who has recently qualified themselves so has fresh first-hand experience of the challenges you will face.

Benefits include:

- Access to Buddy Mentors who are familiar with the stresses and strains.
- Support with learning and assessment challenges, for example how best to group subjects together to maximise the credits from your studies.
- Time management, work/study planning and examination/assignment techniques are all useful life skills as well as being essential for examination success. Get top tips from expert tutors, who have business experience themselves.
- Tried and tested content from the Chartered Insurance Institute and Insurance Institute of London (IIL), with a logical scheme structure, experienced presenters plus contacts who can give you extra support.
- In addition to the Buddy Mentors, this scheme is supported by a number of Advocate Mentors, who are drawn from among the leaders of the profession – typically they are CEOs of major firms. By joining this scheme, you will have opportunities to network with them in person, in a relaxed social setting, and you can find out how they made it to the top.

Next steps

If you would like to find out more about our programme, we will be holding a virtual introductory session on Monday 07 December 2020 at 13:15-14:15. This session will provide an opportunity for you to hear first-hand from a current Mentee, Buddy Mentor and Advocate Mentors. To reserve your place, please book online at iilondon.co.uk prior to Friday 04 December 2020.

The fine print - this scheme isn't

- An 'easy option' with all the work done for you! The Buddy and Advocate Mentors provide their time for free and the onus is on you, the Mentee, to drive the relationship.
- A 'one-to-one' career/personal coaching programme. If you are looking for career coaching, please see www.cii.co.uk/connect
- A mechanism for advice on specific assessments or technical learning issues.
- A magic solution if you don't study or participate. You will still need to do the work, contribute, share and give feedback.
- A prison sentence! This is a three-year commitment. We want you to succeed but appreciate that circumstances change. If you cannot continue to participate or if you experience a problem in your Mentee Group such as compatibility with fellow Mentees or Buddy Mentor, just let us know by emailing allison.potts@cii.co.uk.

Full joining terms and conditions can be found on page 9. Applications will also be considered from members completing a probationary scheme with their employer.

“Taking part in the mentoring scheme has really helped to boost my confidence with the CII exams. It has helped me to stay motivated, increased my knowledge of the different pathways available, and meet others in the industry who are trying to balance work and studying. The advice I’ve obtained from this has been invaluable.”

Lucie Dean Dip CII,
Assistant Underwriter - Crisis Management
CFC Underwriting - Mentee

Information for Buddy Mentors

Role of the Buddy Mentor

We are looking to recruit 12 volunteers to be Buddy Mentors for our 2021 intake.

Buddy Mentors will:

- have qualified at Advanced Diploma level (ACII or APFS) in 2016 or later;
- be happy to commit to three years as a Buddy Mentor;
- have sufficient time to follow up attendance and motivation of Mentees. It is envisaged Buddy Mentors will have four Mentees within a team of eight alongside another Buddy Mentor;
- have a working knowledge of CII's RevisionMate and willingness to undergo basic familiarisation with the new learning and assessment programmes; and
- be prepared to attend all of the events listed on page 6.

Personal qualities required of a Buddy Mentor

We are looking for volunteers with:

- a positive outlook;
- an interest in leadership;
- an open mind; and
- the ability to work and communicate with people at all ages and stages of their career.

While the onus is on the Mentee to forge and to drive the relationship, Buddy Mentors are expected to be proactive if the need arises and to share the responsibility for motivating Mentees, encouraging their regular engagement and attendance at events.

“I have thoroughly enjoyed being an IIL Buddy Mentor, and have found it very rewarding. The mentees are enthusiastic, bright and keen to learn. We have monthly meetings and celebrate everyone's successes in their exams and coursework. I would recommend being a mentor to anyone who has recently obtained their ACII qualification.”

Leanna Mailer ACII, Senior Technical Adjuster,
Aspen Insurance UK Ltd

Why volunteer?

Perhaps you have reached a stage of your career when you would like to put something back into your professional community. Volunteering as a Buddy Mentor is a real, practical way of doing so.

You will have the opportunity to build relationships with Advocate Mentors who are drawn from among the leaders of the profession – typically they are CEOs of major firms. This will help to expand your network.

You can also state your mentoring experience on your professional CV.

The fine print

This is a qualification mentoring scheme, not a career mentoring scheme. Being a Buddy Mentor isn't an opportunity to recruit new staff – the poaching of mentees from their current employer is unacceptable.

“The sharing of knowledge, especially around how to approach certain revision topics or answer exam case studies, is something that cannot be learned purely out of a textbook. That is where the practical and collaborative support system provided through the IIL programme can add real value. The pooling of expertise from people in differing career stages allows everyone to benefit in some way from the group. As a Mentor, I find it immensely rewarding to be part of someone's career journey.”
