The FCA business interruption test case: update and workshop

Date

Wednesday 25 November 2020

Time

12.30pm - 1.30pm

Speaker

Pamela Freewood, Associate, Weightmans LLP

Sarah Irwin, Solicitor, Weightmans LLP

In this YMC webinar in association with Weightmans LLP, the speakers provided a summary of the background and current position of the FCA business interruption insurance test case. They discussed some of the key issues and policy construction points as decided in the first instance and provided tips on how to apply elements of the decision to other policy wordings.

By the end of this webinar, members will have gained an insight into:

- Where we are and what further developments there are likely to be in the test case
- How to approach a review of a business interruption policy which may be similar to any of the 21 lead policies considered in the test case
- Key themes and issues to keep in mind when considering business interruption claims in the current legal landscape
