Climate change for insurers: Perils, opportunities and revisiting the past

Date Tuesday 2 March 2021

Time 1.00pm - 2.00pm

Speakers Jason Reeves, Managing Partner, and Deepa Sutherland, Senior Associate, Zelle International LLP

In this IIL claims lecture, Jason Reeves and Deepa Sutherland discussed the insurance effects of climate change, US and international climate change litigation, the lessons learned from historic liability insurance exposures, and recommendations on action to be taken by the insurance industry to meet these climate change challenges.

By the end of this webinar members would have gained an insight into:

- Why insurers should care about climate change
- Historical and more recent case law and litigation relating to climate change in the United States and international jurisdictions
- What lessons can be learned from previous long tail liability exposures, solutions, opportunities, and objections resulting from climate change to be considered by the insurance industry
