In this Young Members' Committee webinar, a panel of senior executives discussed their personal backgrounds and encouraged thought provoking conversation around the current and future state of diversity and inclusion in the market.

By the end of this webinar, members will have gained an insight into:

- Four senior executives career paths
- An understanding of the various perspectives which exist and are prevalent across the D&I space
- Past, current, and future trends of D&I within the insurance market and more widely the financial services sector
- What can be done to challenge and improve the current D&I landscape
