

CAPT. JOHN DOLAN

Deputy Director, Loss Prevention
The Standard Club

A master mariner, Capt. John Dolan spent 11 years at sea working primarily on oil tankers. John then returned to university for two years and graduated with a master's degree in Science in International Shipping.

He built on his technical and academic experience by becoming a ship manager and for the next 23 years, he worked in most of the key functions and senior roles in ship management including commercial, marine, safety, operational and technical positions culminating in 10 years' experience as General Manager / Director level of two large shipping companies.

During this period, he was also a Board member of the International Chamber of Shipping where he represented Ireland for five years.

Today, as Deputy Director, Loss Prevention at The Standard Club he shares his experience and knowledge with underwriters, claims personnel and club members daily.
