

DAMIAN GLYNN

Director, Head of Financial Risks
Sedgwick International UK

Damian has over 25 years' experience in commercial claims.

Having qualified as a Chartered Accountant with KPMG in 1986, Damian had experience of forensic, insolvency, general audit and special investigation work prior to entering the loss adjusting profession in 1993. Since then he has dealt exclusively with large and/or complex financial losses in the UK and overseas, representing both policyholders and insurers, and acting as an expert in commercial disputes.

He has provided evidence in litigated cases for over a decade and has appeared in court as an expert witness. As both a Chartered Loss Adjuster and Chartered Accountant he has experience of practical loss mitigation as well as the retrospective assessment of losses arising. Damian was the Joint Chair of the Research Study Group that produced the IIL/CILA book Business Interruption Policy Wordings - Challenges Highlighted by Claims Experience – first published in October 2012
