

JOHN MINTON

CEO

The Minton, Treharne and Davies Group

John Minton is a graduate chemical engineer who has worked for the London insurance and marine market since the mid 1980's as an expert investigator and adviser regarding oil and chemical claims, dealing with thousands of these in that time. John is CEO of the Minton, Treharne & Davies Group of companies, which conducts such work from offices and laboratories in Australia, Singapore, the United Arab Emirates, Netherlands, UK and the USA.

During his career John has served on various national and international committees setting standards for oil measurement and reporting procedures. He has also been co-opted onto various London Market (JCC) committees drafting and publishing various updated or new insurance clauses, including the current 'Misappropriation' clause in the wording of which he had an important role.

As part of his work, he has acted as an expert witness in court in relation to legal disputes regarding many, some very large, oil and chemical claims in the UK and other jurisdictions around the world.
