Warren started his insurance career at the age of 19 as a trainee Lloyds broker. He spent 28 years at JLT in a sequence of expanding leadership roles and has run five different divisions of specialists in London and been CEO of businesses in Sweden, Singapore, Hong Kong and China.

Since 2019 he has been CEO of Specialist Risk Group, the private equity backed specialist integrator. An unashamedly people and culture oriented business, SRG's vision is to "build the kind of company we are proud to tell our friends and family about".

Warren is married with two children and lives in Sevenoaks and Stockholm
