

Damian Glynn

BA (Hons) FCA FCILA FUEDI ELAE FIFAA

Director
Head of Financial Risks

United Kingdom
Sedgwick International UK

Damian deals exclusively with large and/or complex financial losses, and has acted as an expert in commercial disputes. He has provided evidence in court as an expert witness, both as a Chartered Accountant and a Chartered Loss Adjuster, and has been retained to provide expert determinations.

Damian chaired the Chartered Institute of Loss Adjusters' (CILA) Business Interruption group for twelve years, and has previously set Business Interruption examinations. He regularly runs financial loss seminars throughout and beyond the UK, and has written various articles and books on the subject of Business Interruption, including co-chairing a widely read report on BI wordings issued by CILA and the IIL/CII (Insurance Institute of London/Chartered Insurance Institute). He co-authored the Basic BI book published by the CILA, and is the co-editor of Riley on Business Interruption Insurance.
