

Continuing Professional Development Certificate

Emerging risks and insurance innovation

Date: Tuesday 31 January 2017

Time: 1.15pm - 2.00pm

Speaker: Dr Trevor Maynard, Head of Innovation, Lloyd's

In this IIL lecture Trevor Maynard talked about emerging risks as a source of insurance innovation.

The lecture started with some examples of innovation and concluded there are key ingredients for successful disruptive change. Various mega-trends were highlighted as these provide the backdrop to the near-future. A short description of the current horizon scanning process at Lloyd's was given and then various key emerging risks were presented along with some tools that have been developed to explore them.

By the end of this lecture members would have gained an insight into:

- The importance of innovation in the insurance market
- Some key emerging risks that will have important insurance consequences
- Various methodologies for assessing the risks

This lecture or podcast can be included as part of your CPD requirement should you consider it relevant to your professional development needs. It is recommended that you keep any evidence of the CPD activity you have completed and upload copies to the recording tool as the CII may ask to see this if your record is selected for review.