

Continuing Professional Development Certificate

Pensions deregulation

Date: Wednesday 1 February 2017

Time: 1.15pm - 2.00pm

Speaker: Neil Bhan, Partner, Employment & Pensions, DAC Beachcroft LLP

In this IIL lecture Neil Bhan addressed the issues arising from the pension flexibilities first introduced in 2015, including risk in relation to transfers and guidance/advice, taking into account the impact of Brexit on private sector pension provision.

The key areas addressed were: 1. What impact have the pension flexibilities had on pension provision since their introduction in April 2015? 2. Where do the attendant legal risks lie for pension providers and advisers? 3. How can these risks be mitigated? 4. What impact have the flexibilities and risks had on pension provision? 5. What additional issues have arisen as a result of Brexit?

By the end of this lecture members would have gained an insight into:

- Issues and legal risks arising from the 2015 pension flexibilities
- How these risks can be mitigated
- The impact of Brexit on flexibility - related issues

This lecture or podcast can be included as part of your CPD requirement should you consider it relevant to your professional development needs. It is recommended that you keep any evidence of the CPD activity you have completed and upload copies to the recording tool as the CII may ask to see this if your record is selected for review.