Place of refuge for ships in distress - is the future bright?

Date: Tuesday 07 November 2017

Time: 1.15pm - 2.00pm

Speaker:

Hugh Shaw, OBE, UK Secretary of State's Representative for Maritime Salvage and Intervention (SOSREP)

In this IIL lecture Hugh Shaw described the current UK practices for dealing with places of refuge and work being undertaken within EU and internationally. In his presentation Hugh outlined the challenges for Governments and Insurance / Salvage sectors when dealing with places of refuge incidents. He also briefly referred to UK policy and included within his presentation a number of case studies including MSC NAPOLI, MSC FLAMINIA and HEOGH OSAKA. In addition, Hugh gave a brief insight into progress being made within EU and across globe Asia. He concluded by offering his cautiously optimistic view that momentum has been made in the last few years and provided complacency does not set in, there was every reason to believe that the future should be bright.

By the end of this lecture, members would have gained an insight into:

- Current UK policy and practices;
- EU Guidelines and Co-operation;
- Global initiatives for addressing POR challenges.
