

Continuing Professional Development Certificate

Impact of US election result on insurance industry and UK trade relationship

Date: Wednesday, 15 November 2017

Time: 1.15pm - 2.00pm

Speaker:

Thomas M Dawson, Partner, Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP

Tom's lecture reviewed how far the early days of the Republican-controlled Federal Government suggestion that by November 2017 we will have seen major change with respect to the Federal Government's a) oversight of the nation's insurance markets and our largest insurers, b) management of the Federal flood insurance program, c) negotiation of insurance trade deals (i.e. covered agreements) and d) relationship with state insurance regulators have materialised. In his presentation, Tom also looked at other areas of potential interest to UK insurers, such as tax reform legislation and cybersecurity regulation.

By the end of this lecture, members would have gained an insight into:

- Washington political scene relevant to insurers
- Key Federal legislative/regulatory issues for non-US re/insurers
- Current relationship between Federal and state governments

This lecture or podcast can be included as part of your CPD requirement should you consider it relevant to your professional development needs. It is recommended that you keep any evidence of the CPD activity you have completed and upload copies to the recording tool as the CII may ask to see this if your record is selected for review.